pondency, when I began to take Elec-

"THE STRUGGLE," A LIVING ROMANCE

The All-Absorbing Trust Question Exposed in Fiction.

GREATEST NOVEL OF THE TIMES

By Hon. Sidney C. Tapp of the Atlanta Bar—A Former Resident of Gainesville—Author of the Story of Anglo-Saxon Institutions.

Many people of this city will take a deep interest in the much-heralded book, "The Struggle," by the Hon.
Sidney C. Tapp of the Atlanta bar and author of "The Story of Anglo-Saxon Institutions," which is expected to be issued from the press November 1st, as the author was at one time a resident of this city and is known by many residents.

Mr. Tapp's work on the Anglo-Saxon Institutions has made his name famous among scholars both in this country and in Europe, and in his forthcoming novel on the trust question he has given new life and force to the world of fiction. It is a living, pulsating ex-posure of the evils of the trust. The author paints a real and living picture of the inside of Wall street and the great gambling institutions of the country which are overthrowing and destroying our civilization. There is not a tiresome line nor page in the book. It discloses the corruption of organized wealth that is destroying the vitality of our system of government in such a real and living manner that the reader feels and realizes the inspiration of the author. The love story is a real living romance that is both interesting and inspiring. It is unquestionably one of the epoch making novels of the times, and that the distinguished lawyer has given to the world of fiction a work that will open the eyes of the American people to the disease that is destroying our free institutions cannot be denied.

The novel will be placed on sale about the first of November at the price of $1.50, postage 10 cents. It will be issued by the American Baptist Publication Society, Southeastern House, 37 South Pryor street, Atlanta, Ga. H. C. Robert, Manager.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes:
"After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J.
W. McCollum & Co.

School Official Indicted.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 14.—The grand jury returned a final report today with a true bill against Oliver J. Bailey, the chairman of the finance committee of the Peoria school board, and holding him on the charge of malfeasance in office in suffering and permitting one, Newton C. Dougherty to disappropr-iate and unlawfully convert to his own use school moneys to a large amount.
Mr. Bailey is one of the wealthiest men in this city.
